I FEEL SPACE, you feel space, we all feel space! Norway's own Hans-Peter LINDSTRØM, one of thee remixers and producers at the moment, finds a new home in the Playhouse for his anthem »I FEEL SPACE«. Originally released in late spring on his own Feedelity Recordings imprint, this beautiful tune got props from nearly everyone during the last months. It's a journey through time and space as we're floating elegantly on this haunting melody, driven by heavenly handclaps and a mighty fat bassdrum. Get lost while dancing in the Mos Eisley cantina in the early morning after hours to the sounds of bubbling basslines, crazy cowbells and beatin' bongos! Now Berlin based GET PHYSICAL stalwarts M.A.N.D.Y. heave the track to the other side of the moon to create their version for all somnambulists entering the dark side... M.A.N.D.Y. succeed in keeping the atmosphere of the original version but slightly re-interpret it in a more lugubrious way. Darth Vader voices and some »hahaha« snippets thrown in by some famous Lou Reed related N.Y. lady add to the intense feeling you get while listening to this remix. And you will ask yourself, following the break after 4 minutes, if YOU will be ready for the dark side as well!

Be prepared for an ISOLÉE remix to be found on the vinyl version of the upcoming FAMOUS WHEN DEAD 4 inhouse compilation! Massive...
